

Question: GitHub Copilot

Answer: GitHub Copilot is a tool that transforms language prompts into code suggestions. It also offers organization-wide policy management and has strengths in being grounded on rich data from OpenAI Codex and GitHub, with a free trial available. However, it has limitations in supporting new APIs or coding libraries and potential data privacy issues.